

NIE NEWSPAPER QUIZ #102

Most Americans alive today hadn't been born on June 6, 1944.
Did you study or do you remember these leaders of D-Day.

1. A pioneer of tank warfare, he was not permitted by Ike to take part in D-Day.
a) Gaven, b) Patton, c) de Gaulle, d) Marshall
2. Called the "Soldiers' General" he led U.S. forces in Europe.
a) Wainwright, b) Nimitz, c) Blount, d) Bradley
3. British officer in command of the ground forces on D-Day.
a) Sir Bertram Ramsey, b) Sir Trafford Leigh-Mallory,
c) Sir Bernard Montgomery, d) Phillip Mountbattan
4. In command at Utah beach was this General trying to live up to the family's reputation.
a) Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., b) John Eisenhower, c) Benedict Arnold,
d) Robert E. Lee, III
5. American General of Mennonite/River Brethren family. Chose West Point because it was all expense paid.
a) Bohlen, b) Eisenhower, c) Nimitz, d) Kaiser
6. On D-Day, Gen. Mac Arthur's forces took Biak, on the world's second largest island.
a) Borneo, b) Honshu, c) Madagascar, d) New Guinea
7. The 320th Anti-aircraft Battalion landed with the Rangers on Omaha Beach. Except for its commander, Whitfield Jack, it was entirely composed of
a) foreigners, b) African American, c) German volunteers,
d) NJ National Guardsmen
8. Churchill said that this French General was the "heaviest cross I have ever had to bear."
a) Darlan, b) LeClerc, c) de Gaulle, d) Robespierre 9. Field Marshall Erwin Rommel had been previously defeated by the British at
a) El Alamein, b) Kasserine Pass, c) the Maret Line, d) Langarone.
10. Gen. Claus Graf Schenk von Stauffenberg failed to assassinate him after Normandy.
a) von Rundstedt, b) Beck c) Keitel, d) Hitler

Churchill called the Merchant Marine "the greatest heroes of the war."
I have no argument with that.

Answers to Quiz #101: 1a, 2c, 3d, 4b, 5c, 6c, 7b, 8d, 9a, 10c.

Answers to this week's quiz will appear after Quiz #103.

Suggest a quiz topic. Call Steve at (609) 272-7318 or write to Steve at: The Press-NIE, 1000 W. Washington Ave., Pleasantville, NJ 08232, or email Steve at sgondelman@pressofac.com.

NIE WEEKLY QUIZZES ARE ONLINE!

Find them on our website: PressofAtlanticCity.com

NEWSPAPERS
In Education

The Press
OF ATLANTIC CITY

Life, one page at a time